INTAKE : MARCH | SEPTEMBER

MASTER OF ARTS (SOCIAL WORK) - RESEARCH

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

The M.A. (Social Work) is a research-based programme for graduates and practitioners seeking advanced theoretical and practice knowledge. Through a supervised research project, students develop skills in critical inquiry, practice evaluation, and integrating theory with real-world application. This prepares them for professional advancement in social work and social welfare services.

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

This programme is offered by full research. Students are required to:

1. attend and pass the following courses with at least a B grade :
   - SZRZ6014 Research Methodology;
   - SCLE6014 Academic Writing; and/or
   - any other courses as determined by the supervisor or Academic Committee
2. present research idea at colloquiums arranged by the School or at academic symposium/conference;
3. present and defend the proposed research to a committee;
4. attend a viva voce session to defend the thesis; and
5. submit a written thesis.

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES

Students have the flexibility to choose their preferred practice area or issue for scientific inquiry. With UUM's Social Work Programme being the largest in Malaysia, students benefit from wide supervisory expertise across diverse fields of practice.

Additional info : The Master of Arts (Social Work) is accredited by Malaysian Qualification Agency (MQA).
