Industrial Training is designed as a platform for students (or interns) to adapt to the work environment. Industrial Training is also intended for students to apply what they have learned. Recognising the importance of Industrial Training, School of Multimedia Technology and Communication (SMMTC), College of Arts and Sciences (CAS), Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM), provides the opportunities for students of all programmes to undergo Industrial Training.

Industrial Training is one of the compulsory courses for all SMMTC students to fulfil the conferment of

- Bachelor of Communication with Honours – B. Comm. (Hons)
- Bachelor of Media Technology with Honours – B. Media Tech. (Hons)

A. GENERAL INFORMATION

1.1 Industrial Training Objectives

Industrial Training is implemented to meet the following objectives:

i. to expose the interns to the real working environment before graduating.
ii. to provide opportunities for interns to relate the theoretical and practical understanding through industrial training programmes in organisations where interns are placed.

CHAPTER 2

Industrial Training Scope

A. GENERAL INFORMATION

In general, students are allowed to do any projects related to their respective programmes. However, the project has to be proposed by the student and approved by the Report Supervisor (SMMTC). The Report Supervisor can discuss the project with Organisational Supervisor (Employer) to determine its appropriate scope.

B. INFORMATION BY PROGRAMME

2.1 Scope of Research/Report

Each student is required to produce a report after the completion of Industrial Training. Students undergoing Industrial Training should take a serious view of reports being prepared. Industrial Training report covers 30% of the overall marks. Students are advised to conduct studies or Strength, Weakness, Opportunity and Threat (SWOT) analysis related to communication aspects of respective organisations such as organisational communication, communication for social change, and information and communication technology.

Marks distribution is as follows:

Introduction	5%
Organizational Background	10%
Communication Aspects in Organization	20%
Analysis & Discussion	30%
Suggestion	20%
Summary	5%
Format and Presentation	10%

In order to fulfil the requirement, the students need to discuss with Report Supervisors (SMMTC) regarding the report scope. They also need to discuss with the Organisational Supervisor regarding the scope suitability.

The purposes of the key report scopes are to:

i. avoid from using the company's annual report as final Industrial Training report;
ii. encourage students to think creatively and critically on the scope of research undertaken;
iii. expose students to the report writing process;
iv. strengthen students' understanding on the application of the theories learned and how they could be practiced in the real settings especially in relations to administration and management;
v. increase students' understanding of the scope of the study i.e., communication and management aspects.

It is advisable for students to prepare themselves with appropriate report scope in order to ensure the smooth flow of the writing process. The scope needs to be relevant to the programme areas.

CHAPTER 3

Proposal Writing

GENERAL INFORMATION

A proposal is produced by the student to explain about future project in the organisation. However, the requirement of the report proposal is based on the programme and Report Supervisor. Student needs to confirm this requirement with the Report Supervisor. The proposal should be submitted to the Report Supervisor (SMMTC) TWO (2) weeks after the students registered at the organisation. The proposal must be clear, concise, neat and written in either English or Bahasa Malaysia. The maximum number of pages is 10 excluding appendices. The information on the front and last page of the proposal is as shown in Appendix A and B respectively. Student needs to discuss with the Report Supervisor (SMMTC) and Organisational Supervisor (Employer) to determine appropriate project. The project scope must be agreed by both supervisors. The proposal should be signed by the student and approved by the Organisational Supervisor (Refer Appendix B). Please refer to Chapter 6 for the format of the proposal.

3.1 Report Proposal

Every student undergoing Industrial Training is encouraged to produce a written proposal within TWO (2) weeks of its commencement. Proposal components are as follows:

i. Introduction
ii. Organisational background
iii. Goals and objectives of internship
iv. Description of job scopes
v. Summary
vi. References (using APA style)
vii. Appendix (if any)

In meeting this goal, student may discuss with both Report Supervisor (SMMTC) and Organisational Supervisor on the scope of the project. However, the production of proposal is not mandatory. Rather, it is subjected to the request from supervisor. Thus, it is recommended for student to confirm requirement of proposal by consulting his/her respective supervisor.

CHAPTER 4

Logbook Writing

4.1 Logbook Requirements

During Industrial Training, intern is required to record his/her daily activities at the organisation. Intern is advised to always keep the record updated daily. Logbook must be endorsed by the Organisational Supervisor by signing each sheet of the book.

For B.Comm. (Hons) and B.MediaTech. (Hons) interns, the logbook will be reviewed by the Visiting Supervisor (UUM) during the Industrial Training visit. Hence, students need to prepare their logbook during the visits.

Logbook must be filled each day by the students. The purposes of writing a logbook are to:

i. facilitate the students to reflect on the activities that have been carried out
ii. enable the students to learn and improve their performance based on their given tasks in the organisation
